ABSTRACT

This document presents the annual report on head-count and full-time-equivalent students enrolled for credit in Virginia's state-controlled institutions of higher education. The figures and tables summarize student enrollments for individual institutions, for groups of institutions (2-year and 4-year), and for all state-controlled institutions for the year 1971-72. Section 1 presents analysis of the resident head-count and full-time-equivalent enrollments, and section 2 presents analysis of the off-campus course offerings and enrollments and the full-time-equivalent off-campus enrollments. INTRODUCTION

The total resident full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment in Virginia's state-controlled ins during the regular session 1971-72 averaged 97,789 students, an average gain of 9.9 per cent from enrollment was composed of 8.2 per cent foundation level students, 8.9 per cent terminal-occupa bachelor's credit level, 27.3 per cent upper level, 2.6 per cent first professional level, 5.5 per 1.5 per cent advanced graduate (page 36).

The total annual FTE enrollment for the 1971-72 academic year (regular session plus summ average increase of 10.1 per cent from the total FTE enrollment for 1970-71 (page 37). The four per cent average increase in FTE enrollment during 1970-71 (page 35) compared with an average per cent by the two-year institutions.

The five areas of study with the largest FTE enrollments during 1971-72 were (in descending 17,926 (page 48), letters, 14,945 (page 48), education, 11,632 (page 46), mathematics, 9,466 management, 8,281 (page 46). These five areas of study accounted for 58.1 per cent of the total F e-equivalent (FTE) enrollment in Virginia's state-controlled institutions of higher education averaged 97,789 students, an average gain of 9.9 per cent from 1970-71. The regular session er cent foundation level students, 8.9 per cent terminal-occupational level, 46.0 per cent cent upper level, 2.6 per cent first professional level, 5.5 per cent first year graduate, and age 36).

INTRODUCTION

ment for the 1971-72 academic year (regular session plus summer session) was 107,062; an from the total FTE enrollment for 1970-71 (page 37). The four-year institutions had a 7.1 nrollment during 1970-71 (page 35) compared with an average FTE enrollment gain of 20.7 ns.

the largest FTE enrollments during 1971-72 were (in descending order) the social sciences, (page 48), education, 11,632 (page 46), mathematics, 9,466 (page 48), and business and ese five areas of study accounted for 58.1 per cent of the total FTE enrollment.

The resident full-time-equivalent regular session enrollment in Virginia's state-con tion increased from 62,095 in 1967-68 to 97,789 in 1971-72, a gain of 57.5 per cent. Th tions experienced a 37.5 per cent increase while the two-year colleges showed a gain of 18

In 1967-68, the two-year institutions accounted for 13.2 per cent of the total regu centage increased to 24.2 per cent in 1971-72. The two-year institutions' head-count enr portion of part-time students than is the four-year institutions'; therefore, the ratio of h equivalent students produced is larger at the two-year institutions.

lent regular session enrollment in Virginia's state-controlled institutions of higher educa-8 to 97,789 in 1971-72, a gain of 57.5 per cent. The state-controlled four-year institucrease while the two-year colleges showed a gain of 188.6 per cent.

titutions accounted for 13.2 per cent of the total regular session FTE students. This per-1971-72. The two-year institutions' head-count enrollment is composed of a larger prothe four-year institutions'; therefore, the ratio of head-count enrollment to full-time-at the two-year institutions.

CREDIT ENROLLM

CAMPUS FULL-TIME-EQUIVALENT CREDIT ENROLLMENT

Full-time-equivalent (FTE) student enrollment is a statistic derived from the student-cr institution. The undergraduate FTE enrollment is derived by dividing the total annual numbe credit-hours by 30 (for those institutions on the quarter system the divisor becomes 45). The gra rived by dividing the total annual number of graduate semester credit-hours by 24 (for those insti the divisor becomes 36). The off-campus full-time-equivalent enrollments are presented by area the course.

The total off-campus FTE enrollment for the year 1971-72 (Regular Session plus Summer S six state-controlled institutions of higher education offering off-campus courses, University of Virg cent of the total FTE enrollment; William and Mary, 10.2 per cent; VPI and State University, University, 7.3 per cent; Madison College, 3.2 per cent; and Virginia State College, 2.8 per ce

The five areas of study with the largest FTE enrollments during 1971-72 were (in descendin social sciences, 560, business and management, 318, letters, 272, and mathematics, 154. Educa valent (FTE) student enrollment is a statistic derived from the student-credit-hour productivity of an rgraduate FTE enrollment is derived by dividing the total annual number of undergraduate semester r those institutions on the quarter system the divisor becomes 45). The graduate FTE enrollment is de- otal annual number of graduate semester credit-hours by 24 (for those institutions on the quarter system). The off-campus full-time-equivalent enrollments are presented by area of study and by the level of campus FTE enrollment for the year 1971-72 (Regular Session plus Summer Session) was 4,727. Of the stitutions of higher education offering off-campus courses, University of Virginia accounted for 68.9 per enrollment; William and Mary, 10.2 per cent; VPI and State University, 7.6 per cent; Old Dominion nt; Madison College, 3.2 per cent; and Virginia State College, 2.8 per cent.

of study with the largest FTE enrollments during 1971-72 were (in descending order) education, 2,757, usiness and management, 318, letters, 272, and mathematics, 154. Education accounted for 58.3 per nrollment.
